Introduction

We are launching a new expression of AB InBev to not just represent our reputation, but to project our ambition. This is equal parts inspiration and aspiration – respecting our heritage while looking to the future.

As we move beyond beer and beyond mainstream, and begin to Dream Big as an organization, the role of our corporate brand identity will also change. Our visual identity has evolved from being a static element-limited identification function, to an active participant playing a larger role in the experience, communications landscape and brand expression.

These guidelines explain how the AB InBev corporate visual identity should be used to communicate our brand vision. The new identity brings a simpler, modern and flexible, yet consistent, look and feel to how our brand shows up in the world.

Please contact marketing and public relations with any questions you may have about our brand or visual identity.

Logo Elements

The AB InBev logo is the cornerstone of our brand. It is an important element from our toolkit that will help to establish brand recognition and presence. The logo is constructed of two key components; the symbol and the wordmark.

Logo Introduction

Meaning Behind our Symbol

Our symbol tells the story of our brand, bringing together our three key principles. The mark embodies the spirit of our mission and products.

Inclusive
Capturing the action of cheers. Bringing people together and lifting up communities

Natural
Our ingredients and our stewardship of the planet's resources

Local
Our local roots and our global reach & distribution

Logo Toolkit

Logo Color Use

The different color variations of the logo consist of gold, black, and white. Use the color combinations listed here as a guide to ensure the logo has enough contrast.

Spacing & Sizing

Proper clear space allows for the AB InBev logo to always be clear and legible. It is important for there to be a minimum amount of space around the logo to ensure that it is separated from headlines, copy, or imagery. Use our symbol as the measurement tool for clear space. This space should be equal on all four sides of the logo.

Preferred Clear Space

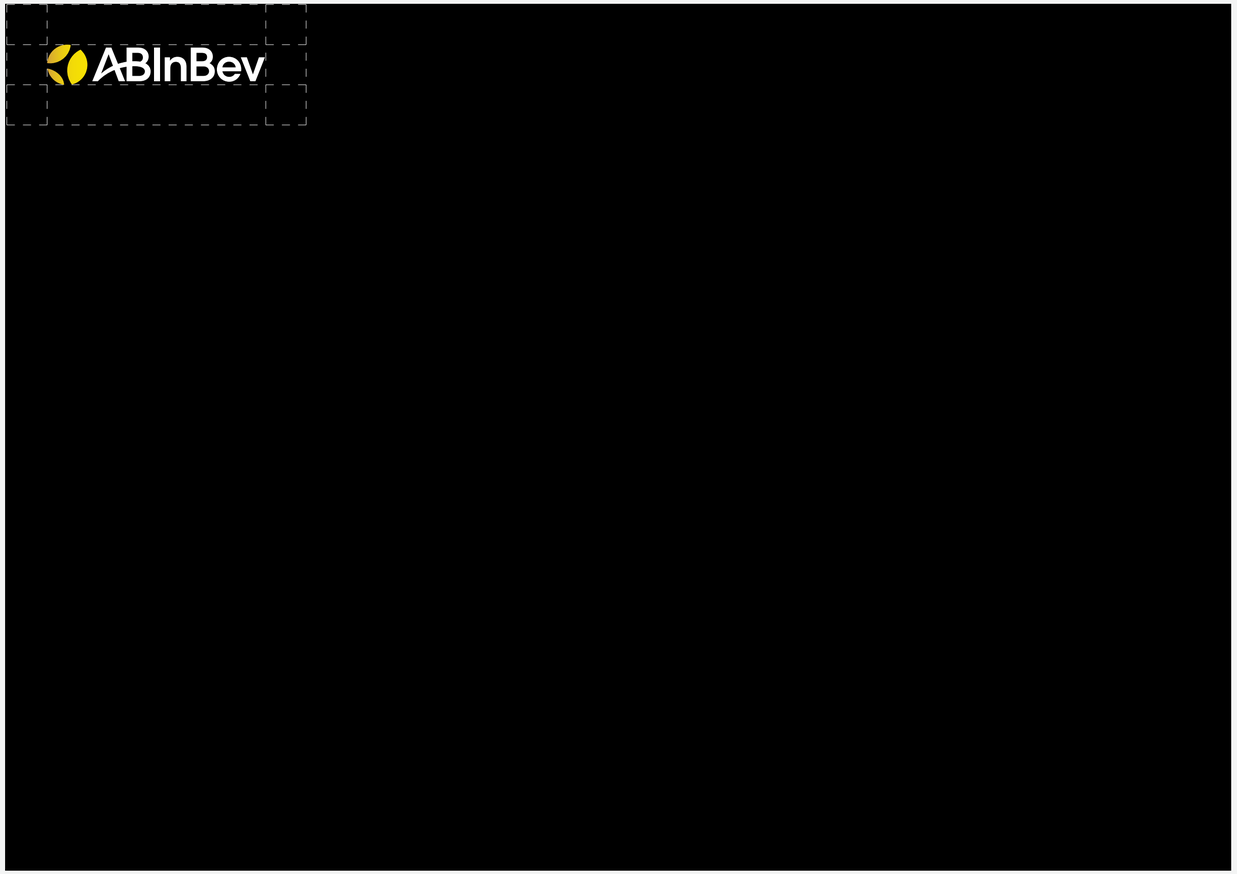

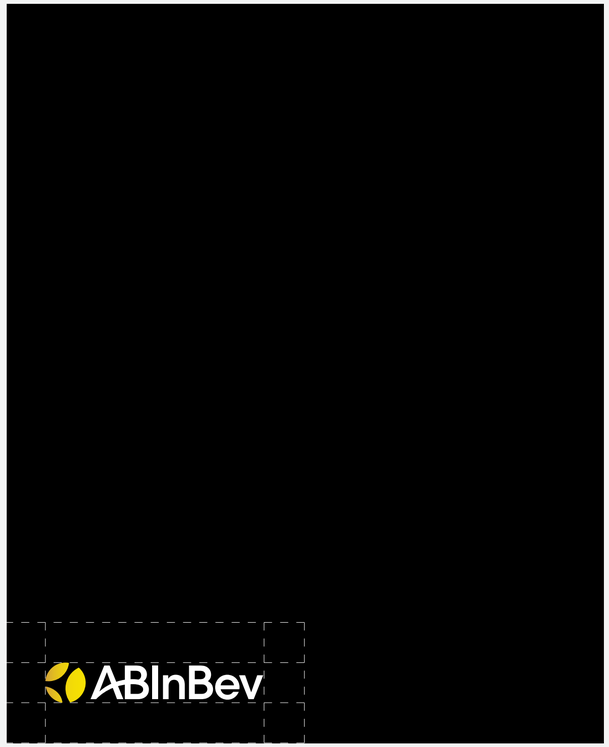

Minimum size (Height)
1.5in / 38mm / 30px

Logo Placement

Consistent placement across communications helps build equity in our logo. Whenever possible, use the AB Inbev logo in the top left corner, or as a sign-off at the bottom of the page.

Tagline

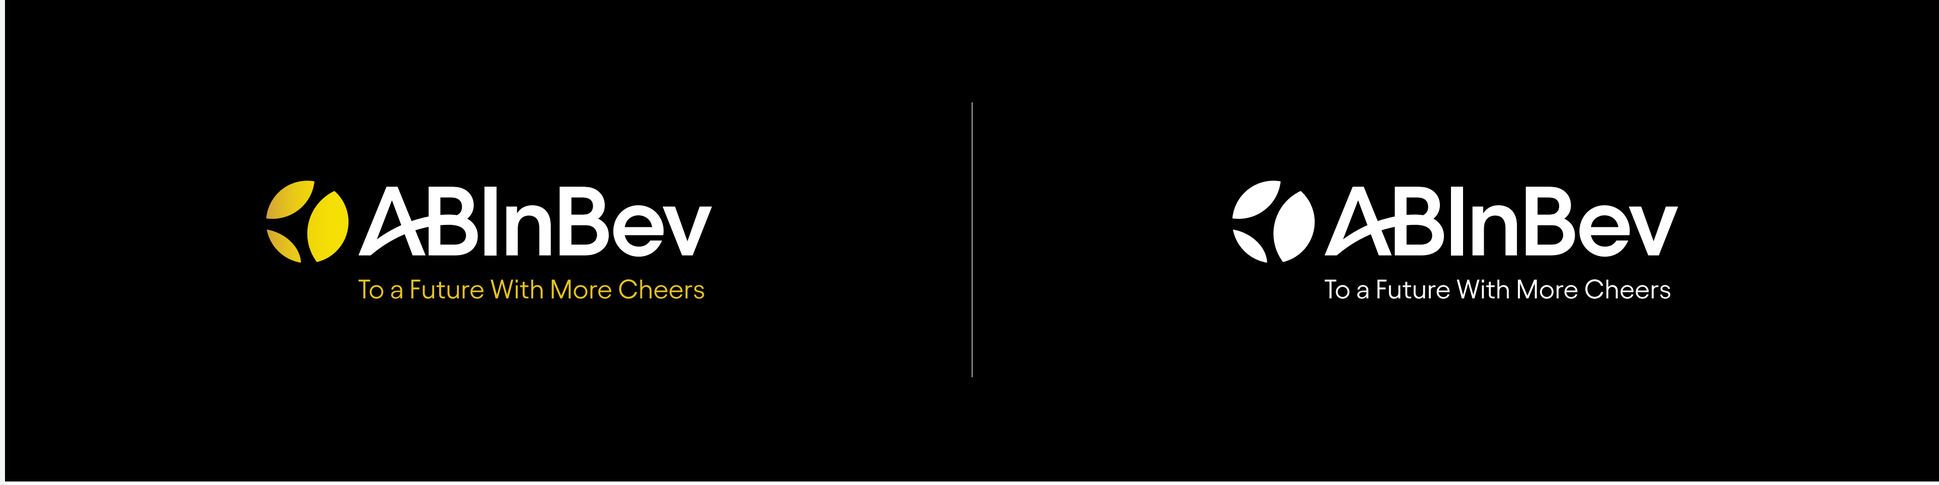

Our tagline is an important asset that can be used to quickly communicate our purpose. For optimal impact, we recommend using it as a sign-off to a document or beneath the logo.

Photography Principles

Our visual identity employs a variety of types of imagery, all brought together through the theme of cheers. Use the principles as a guide when selecting photography.

Capturing Golden Moments.
Where beer brings people together;
The experience around the moment of cheers.

Lifestyle

Moments of cheers where people come together to celebrate. Always a feeling of optimism through a premium lens. Revealing the lifestyle around the cheers.

Behind the Scenes

Showcasing the craft behind the beer. Elevating the process of seed to sip. Evoking the senses through close crops of barley, brewing, and all things behind the scenes.

Sustainability

As a sustainable business we always feature the environmental agenda of the brand where we can. Imagery of our environmental and social responsibility at its best.

Brand Photography

Key AB InBev rands should be incorporated into our photography when possible. Use the same prinicples that apply to our other categories when shooting or selecting brand images.

Image Treatments

Image treatments can be used to add additional branding and sophistication to our photos. Black and white treatments should be created with high contrast. The yellow treatment can be achieved by multiplying our gold gradient over top of a black and white image.
